Headline:
Dry with warm sunny spells. Breezy in eastern coastal districts.

Today:
Perhaps on the cloudy side in places to start, but it will soon brighten up to reveal warm sunny spells for most. Feeling a little cooler in eastern coastal districts in particular, with a northeasterly breeze developing. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with clear spells overnight. Remaining breezy in eastern coastal districts, however lighter winds inland may help lead to local mist or fog patches. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tuesday:
A fine day, with sunny spells developing widely after locally cloudier starts. Remaining breezy in coastal districts although feeling warm in shelter. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Settled but breezy at times through this period, with some warm sunny spells by day, although perhaps more generally cloudy and damp early Thursday. Temperatures falling a little below average.
